

A Classic American Story

Just like the American dream story. Broadway Pizza's success can be traced to a humble beginning.

In 1953, John Spalacci, born in Gorviano Valli, Italy, moved to Minneapolis and introduced his very special pizza recipe to the Twin Cities at his neighborhood gathering place at 253 West Broadway.

Original Broadway Bar just before the wrecking ball in 1975

In 1961, Eddie Peck purchased the operation from Spalacci. With his wife, Dorothy, and mother Mamie, he carefully refined the products, creating the now famous, Broadway Pizza. While Eddie made the sausage from scratch, Mamie spent her mornings meticulously preparing her special sauces and dough. Word quickly got around that Eddie and his family were making the best pizza in town. Soon, it was standing room only at Broadway.

Today, Broadway Pizza is a growing collection of neighborhood restaurants. All are united in our dedication to providing customers with superior food and service. We sincerely hope you enjoy your experience and allow us to serve you again soon!
